

JERRY SMITH

Having been a lifelong hunter, Jerry Smith has always loved shooting and has waterfowl hunted for 35+ years. He and his dad raced sprint cars and won a national championship with AMSA in 1995, but now, Jerry says he has found a new challenge. Early in 2017, a lifelong friend, Eddie Robertson, introduced him to 22 benchrest. They shot 10/22's in the semi and Jerry one day and said he found internet and signed them up at Lake and went to show their skills. They saw fancy rifles sitting on amazing people looking at them like they were told Eddie to get back in the truck to make an escape, but Eddie refused. He must have admired the way he took the Richard Gorham and Bob Cleveland day forward. Soon he bought a rifle. Bob and Jerry became close friends, when his biggest prize in this sport. Marcelling with him and gave him free wind Patterson built him an excellent rifle. His trigger, bolt, and firing pin. And "Bubba", has shot 9 ARA 2500's and year thanks to all their efforts. Jerry is nice, it's the people make this cooking out at the nationals is one of the best. He says he has met a lot of great people to shooting with all of them.
