

SHOOTER SPOTLIGHT ON TODD WOOTEN

Todd Wooten has competitive shooting in his genes! His dad, Ted, was a gunsmith from the Pennsylvania gunsmith school and was the 1967 Ohio State Prone Shooting Champion. Todd began shooting competitively at local money matches. Then, he began to travel to both ARA & IR 50/50 competitions around Ohio at Lancaster, Buckeye Gun Club in South Webster, NE Kentucky, and in West Virginia at Tuckers Creek and Mountain State.

John Prince is Todd's favorite traveling buddy, "[I] couldn't ask for a better person than him. If Glenn Spencer was a better driver he would be up there too." Todd has a great sense of humor, and enjoys the friendships of people he's met at the range. In fact, he says, "the people in this sport are top notch all around." However, there is no doubt Todd goes to matches to compete. As he says, "Besides the good company, winning is the biggest thrill." And, we all know Todd is not having fun unless he's winning!

Todd says his "Pops" has had the biggest impact on him; but, when he first began shooting, Bob Barnhart, Jerry Graves, Gene Davis, and Ray Hess "would just flat shoot ... so it was either get better or go home." Todd practiced, persisted, and he most certainly did not go home. Todd has finished at the top of the pack in ARA, IR 50/50 and PSL competitions including two PSL wins in the past two years. In 2015, he beat out 114 competitors winning the very first Triple Crown of Rimfire competition. Todd had the opportunity to shoot on the 2011 USA Benchrest Team where he won gold in the heavy gun division. He says, "winning the heavy gun class by far is my biggest accomplishment. Standing on a podium with teammates, while they play the national anthem and put a gold medal around your neck has to have been my best experience".

If he isn't at the shooting range, you may find him hunting, fishing, playing golf, or playing guitar. Wherever he is, be assured... he'll be doing his best to be the best!
