RULE

Protesting Target Scores - ARA Rule Book section 16

- 16.1. After all targets have been scored, and upon the conclusion of the final match, all targets shall be made available for inspection by the competitors.
- 16.2. The competitor shall have two minutes per target to determine that scoring and mathematical calculations were completed in an accurate manner.
- 16.3. Any errors discovered after the two minute per target review period has expired shall stand as marked, right or wrong.
- 16.4. There shall be no challenges allowed except on the target of the competitor BY the competitor.
- 16.5. Any scored value given to a plugged shot marked with a "P" and initialed by only one member of the scoring team, indicating it was not reviewed by 2 or more members of the three-person scoring team, may be challenged by the competitor, on HIS target only.
- 16.6. The Match Director shall direct the scoring team to review that shot for possible revision. All plugged holes that have passed the review of the scoring team that are marked with a "P" and the initials of 2 or 3 of the scoring team members shall stand as marked and are not subject to change or challenge.
- 16.7. Any target that qualifies as a National Record Target as noted on the ARA Website Records Page must be sent to the ARA Business Office following the guidelines explained in Rule 18. See further rules for National Record Targets in Rule 18.
